An Englishman who was in France wanted to go back to England by sea. But he had very little money. He had so little money that he could pay only for the ticket. As he knew that the trip would last only two days, he decided not to eat during these days.

As he took a ticket and got on the ship the next morning, he tried not to hear the bell for breakfast. When dinner time came, he was very hungry; but he didn't go to the dining-room. In the evening he was still more hungry, but when the waiter came to invite him to have supper, the Englishman said that he was ill.

The next day the Englishman was half-dead and couldn't stand the hunger any longer. "I shall go and eat even if they kick me out into the sea", said he to himself. So he went to the ship dining-room and had his dinner. In the evening he had supper but was very much afraid of his future because he didn't pay for the meals. At last he addressed the waiter and said: "Bring me the bill, please". – "What bill?" asked the waiter. – "For the supper and dinner I had in your dining-room". – "Don't trouble, Sir. ### Task 3. Answer the questions

Once upon a time in a small village there lived a young man. His name was Jack. He had a wife and old parents. The family was so poor that there were no nice things in their house.

One day Jack went to town to look for a job. Some time passed and he came back with a box full of presents for everybody. He gave his mother a shawl, his father a warm cap and a shirt, his wife a beautiful dress. All of them liked the presents very much and were glad to have them. But Jack's wife wanted to know what else there was in the box. So, when Jack went to see his friends, she opened the box and saw a beautiful young woman in it.

She got very angry and began to cry. When her father-in-law heard it, he asked why she was crying. She told him she was so angry because there was a young woman in the box. The old man thought it was strange and decided to look at the young woman. But when he opened the box, he saw no young woman there. An old man was looking at him from the box. Jack's father told his daughter-in-law there was an old man in the box and not a young woman. But she didn't believe him and went on crying. She said Jack didn't love her. When Jack's mother heard the young woman's story, she didn't believe her either. She looked into the box and saw an old woman there. So they began to look into the box in turn and Jack's wife saw a beautiful woman, Jack's father saw an old man, and Jack's mother saw an old woman there.

Soon Jack returned home, and when he came into the room, he saw his wife, his mother and father at the box. He laughed at them because they didn't know what they saw in the box.

1. What was there in the box? 2. Why did Jack go to town? 3. How many members were in Jack's family? 4. Why was Jack's wife crying? 5. Why did the old man decide to look at the box?

Have you ever had a cat or any other pets? What problems do you think I may come across? Any advice would be very useful.

Write as soon as possible.
